

CV

Isabelle Amorim

E-mail: iamorim@yahoo.com

PROFILE

---

I have 10 years of continuously work experience in the field of international development and humanitarian assistance, in various field locations, with 6 years of direct relevant experience in operations management activities at country office/field offices. I have led complex programs (i.e. Shelter, WASH, Food assistance, Conditional Cash transfer, Children protection and MHPSS) with close coordination with INGOs, governments and non-government agencies. Throughout my career I have proven experience in leading, motivating and developing high-performing teams and delivered interactive workshops (i.e. IASC, SPHERE standards, donors policies guidelines). Furthermore, I also have 8 years' academic experience as researcher and lecturer. I am a Ph.D. student in Sociology: Knowledge for Open and Inclusive Societies and I hold a MSc in Humanitarian Action, a MSc in Psychoanalysis and a BSc in Psychology (Effective member of the Order of Portuguese Psychologists-professional number: 21987)

Qualifications

09.2007 - 12.2008

European Masters Degree (MSc)

Humanitarian Action / NOHA University of Groningen- The Netherlands/
Catholic University of Louvain- Belgium. Awarded 'Erasmus Mundus Scholarship'.

09.1998 - 07.2000

Masters Degree (MSc)/ Psychoanalysis, Spain, Madrid

07.1992 - 12.1997

Bachelor's Degree (BSc)/ Psychology, Brazil, Fortaleza

SKILLS & INTERESTS:

Flexible attitude to easily adapt to unforeseen circumstances;

Researcher: Presentations and publications of articles and proposals in International conferneces;

Capacity Building and Team leader: Training and coordination of staff in different contexts;

Languages

Mother Tongue: Portuguese

English                      Advanced

French                        Advanced

Spanish                      Advanced