

VANESSA TAVIRA

PROJECT MANAGER

PERSONAL PROFILE

I was born in Montreal - Canada, but lived most of my life in Lisbon, Portugal. Love engaging in new projects and a new challenge always fascinates me. I have always been involved in many volunteer projects and one of my biggest loves is to travel. In recent years, sustainability issues have been a constant concern in my life, having not only motivated me to change my actions, as well as to influence the people around me to do the same, but also inspired me into taking several online courses.
