

FORMS OF FAMILIAL, ECONOMIC,
AND POLITICAL ASSOCIATION
IN ANGOLA TODAY
A Foundational Sociology of an African State

Marzia Grassi

With a Foreword by
Keith Hart

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Grassi, Marzia.

Forms of familial, economic, and political association in Angola today : a foundational sociology of an African state / Marzia Grassi ; with a foreword by Keith Hart.

p. cm.

Includes bibliographical references and index.

ISBN-13: 978-0-7734-3677-0

ISBN-10: 0-7734-3677-4

1. Social networks--Angola. 2. Family--Angola. 3. Migrant labor--Angola. 4. Angola--Social conditions. 5. Social surveys--Angola. I. Title.

HN810.Z9S67 2010

306.85086'2409673--dc22

2010012902

hors série.

A CIP catalog record for this book is available from the British Library.

Author photo by Fotozignio, Lisbon, Portugal

Copyright © 2010 Marzia Grassi

All rights reserved. For information contact

The Edwin Mellen Press
Box 450
Lewiston, New York
USA 14092-0450

The Edwin Mellen Press
Box 67
Queenston, Ontario
CANADA L0S 1L0

The Edwin Mellen Press, Ltd.
Lampeter, Ceredigion, Wales
UNITED KINGDOM SA48 8LT

Printed in the United States of America

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| FOREWORD by Keith Hart..... | i |
| AUTHOR'S PREFACE..... | v |
| ACKNOWLEDGMENTS..... | ix |
| | |
| INTRODUCTION..... | 1 |
| The difficult "border" between the formal and the informal | 4 |
| Cross border movements in the Angolan globalised society | 7 |
| | |
| Section 1: Connecting Context and Methodology | |
| Chapter 1: Contextual Background | 19 |
| The Luanda – Huambo Axis..... | 19 |
| Trends in the post-war informal economy of Luanda..... | 21 |
| Urban growth and commercial activities in Huambo | 23 |
| The markets in Huambo and Luanda | 25 |
| Diaspora | 30 |
| Trends in Angolan migratory flows to Portugal | 31 |
| Young Angolans in the diaspora: | |
| informality and labor integration..... | 35 |
| Namibe..... | 37 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| The desert traders | 39 |
| Cunene | 41 |
| Historical precedents..... | 42 |
| Characterization of the region..... | 48 |
| Movements in Cunene – trade | 53 |
| Cabinda | 56 |
| Development and trade | 59 |
| Chapter 2: Methodology..... | 63 |
| The fieldwork: data collection conditions on the ground | 70 |
| The Luanda-Huambo Axis..... | 72 |
| Diaspora | 77 |
| Questionnaire collection locations..... | 79 |
| Reactions to the questionnaires..... | 82 |
| Namibe | 85 |
| Cunene | 87 |
| Cabinda | 88 |
| | |
| Section II – Social Capital, Networks and Sociabilities | |
| Introduction..... | 93 |
| Chapter 1: The socio-demographic characterization of respondents | 95 |
| Age and gender differences | 96 |
| Professional background | 99 |
| Household composition | 102 |
| Schooling | 104 |
| Province of origin and nationality..... | 113 |
| Summary | 117 |
| | |
| Chapter 2: Associative life..... | 121 |
| Forms and backgrounds of association belonging | 123 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Types of association belonged to | 129 |
| Hierarchy and association participation..... | 135 |
| Benefits and services accessed..... | 140 |
| Association management and operation | 144 |
| Informal Associativism..... | 150 |
| Summary | 154 |
| | |
| Chapter 3: Informal dynamics and labor market | 159 |
| Informal labor in the Diaspora..... | 163 |
| Informal working in Namibe: the desert traders | 166 |
| Informal trade networks in Luanda/Huambo and Cunene | 167 |
| Products traded | 170 |
| Acquisition and product supply..... | 177 |
| Informal company characteristics: startup capital and legality .. | 181 |
| Summary | 184 |
| | |
| Chapter 4: Trust and solidarity | 189 |
| Level of trust..... | 191 |
| Mutual help and solidarity | 203 |
| Summary | 204 |
| | |
| Chapter 5: Sociabilities..... | 209 |
| Social networks..... | 210 |
| Difficult to access goods or activities | 212 |
| Civic participation and collective action..... | 213 |
| Working for the benefit of the community | 214 |
| Authority, empowerment and political action | 217 |
| Access to information and the media | 221 |
| Summary | 224 |

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| Suggestions for future research | 227 |
| Bibliography | 237 |
| Index | 249 |

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Graphics

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Graph 1.1 Total of Angolan population legally resident in Portugal and by gender 1986-2008..... | 33 |
| Graph 4.1 – Level of trust by gender | 193 |
| Graph 4.2 – Overall level of trust – Cunene and Luanda | 198 |
| Graph 4.3 – Overall level of trust – Diaspora and Namibe | 201 |

Tables

Section 1: Connecting Context and Methodology

Chapter 1: Contextual Background

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Table 1.1 – Angolan resident population in Portugal by gender and age group | 34 |
| Table 1.2 – Population growth in Kwanhama and Namacunde..... | 49 |
| Table 1.3 – Baixo Cunene population distribution by ethnic group | 50 |
| Table 1.4 – Baixo Cunene population distribution by gender and ethnic group..... | 51 |

Chapter 2: Methodology

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Table 1.5 – Questionnaires collected by location | 79 |
|--------------------------------------------------------|----|

Section 2: People, Social Capital and networks

Chapter 1: The socio-demographic characterization of respondents

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 1.1 – Gender | 96 |
| Table 1.2 – Respondent age | 98 |
| Table 1.3 – Profession | 100 |
| Table 1.4 – People currently lived with | 103 |
| Table 1.5 – People currently lived with, Cunene | 104 |
| Table 1.6 – Respondent level of education | 105 |
| Table 1.7 – Respective level of education by terrain *Age | 107 |
| Table 1.8 – Parental education, Cunene and Luanda | 108 |
| Table 1.9 – Parental education, Diaspora | 109 |
| Table 1.10 - Partner/companion education | 110 |
| Table 1.11 – Education of housemates | 111 |
| Table 1.12 – Other person. Who? | 112 |
| Table 1.13 - Province of origin | 114 |
| Table 1.14 – Nationality | 115 |
| Table 1.15 – Which dual nationality? | 115 |
| Table 1.16 – Birthplace | 116 |
| Table 1.17 – Length of time in Portugal | 116 |

Chapter 2: Associative life

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 2.1 – Forms of association membership | 124 |
| Table 2.2 – Association membership | 125 |
| Table 2.3 – Associative belonging of “other people” in the relational sphere..... | 128 |
| Table 2.4 – Origins of association members | 129 |

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 2.5 - Types of association | 130 |
| Table 2.6 – Association type “other people” belong to | 134 |
| Table 2.7 - “Other people” | 135 |
| Table 2.8 – Most important association/group | 136 |
| Table 2.9 – Second most important association/group | 137 |
| Table 2.10 – Association participation | 138 |
| Table 2.11 – Frequency of participation in the most important association .. | 139 |
| Table 2.12 – Benefits of association membership | 141 |
| Table 2.13 - Services accessed at associations | 142 |
| Table 2.14 – Contribution of monies and goods to associations | 143 |
| Table 2.15 – Contribution of time to associations | 144 |
| Table 2.16 – Association management and decision making | 145 |
| Table 2.17 – Selecting the association leader | 146 |
| Table 2.18 – Effectiveness of association leadership | 147 |
| Table 2.19 – Source of association financing | 148 |
| Table 2.20 – People guiding/advising the association | 149 |
| Table 2.21 – Identification of association founders | 150 |
| Table 2.22 – How many people would lend you money? | 152 |
| Table 2.23 – Social position of lenders | 152 |
| Table 2.24 – Number of people requesting a loan in the last year | 153 |
| Table 2.25 – Social position of people requesting a loan in the last year | 153 |

Chapter 3: Informal dynamics and labor market

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 3.1 – Duration of commercial activities (in years) | 168 |
| Table 3.2 – Duration of commercial activity involvement by age range..... | 169 |
| Table 3.3 – Main products traded | 170 |
| Table 3.4 – Most traded products by gender | 173 |
| Table 3.5 – Hierarchy of the main products sold | 176 |
| Table 3.6 – Location of product acquisition | 177 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 3.7 – Frequency of product supply | 178 |
| Table 3.8 – Quantity of product supply | 179 |
| Table 3.9 - Forms of product supply | 180 |
| Table 3.10 – Association with other traders | 181 |
| Table 3.11 – Start up sources of business capital | 182 |
| Table 3.12 – License holder | 183 |
| Table 3.13 – Taxation charges paid for operational activity | 183 |

Chapter 4: Trust and solidarity

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 4.1 - You can trust in most people | 192 |
| Table 4.2 - You need to watch out | 194 |
| Table 4.3 – People should not be trusted when it comes to money | 195 |
| Table 4.4 – Trust in the national group | 196 |
| Table 4.5 – Trust in other national groups | 197 |
| Table 4.6 – Trust in the police | 197 |
| Table 4.7 – Evolution in level of trust | 203 |
| Table 4.8 – Frequency of mutual help | 204 |
| Table 4.9 – Trust and identified groups | 206 |

Chapter 5: Sociabilities

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 5.1 – Level of proximity to others | 210 |
| Table 5.2 - Differences that cause problems between people..... | 211 |
| Table 5.3 – Probability of criticism for non-participation in community activities | 212 |
| Table 5.4 – Goods or services difficult for the respondent to access | 213 |
| Table 5.5 - Working for the benefit of the community | 214 |
| Table 5.6 – Activities undertaken | 216 |
| Table 5.7 – Activity participation type | 216 |
| Table 5.8 – Important decision making capacity | 218 |

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Table 5.9 – Level of happiness | 218 |
| Table 5.10 – Contribution to society..... | 219 |
| Table 5.11 - Forms of political participation | 219 |
| Table 5.12 – Level of attention paid to the youth in political decision making | 220 |
| Table 5.13 – Payment of bribes to resolve bureaucratic difficulties | 221 |
| Table 5.14 – Degree of effectiveness of bribe payments | 221 |
| Table 5.15 – Sources of information on political / current affairs | 222 |
| Table 5.16 – Sources of market information | 223 |
| Table 5.17 - Trends in accessing information | 224 |