e) Have experience of giving oral presentations in English;

f) Meet the other requirements set out in the Law, namely those established in the General Law on Public Employment (article 17 of Law no. 35/2014 of 21 June).

4 - The researcher to be recruited will carry out scientific activities in the project "The Social sciences & Humanities for Achieving a Responsible, Equitable and Desirable GREEN DEAL (SHARED GREEN DEAL)", funded by Horizon 2020 (Ref. H2020-LC-GD-2020 - GA 101036640), under the scientific coordination of Dr Mónica Truninger (Principal Investigator of the project at ICS), acting in all project tasks.

5 - Within the scope of the activities to be carried out in the project referred to in the previous paragraph, the researcher to be recruited must:

- a) Co-author reports or other project outputs in English and Portuguese;
- b) Process and analyse qualitative data already collected;
- c) Organise, design and facilitate webinars, seminars and online training workshops for young people and adults in English;
- d) Contributing to the development of a toolkit on socio-cultural change geared towards the areas of the European Green Deal;
- e) Contribute to university extension activities related to the project theme;
- f) Collaborate in teaching activities related to the project theme;
- g) Participate in project meetings;
- h) Support the Principal Investigator in project management activities.

6 - Labour regime - The duties are carried out, as a rule, on an exclusive dedication basis, under the terms of article 7(1) of the RJEC.

7 - Employment relationship - The employment relationship is a fixed-term public service contract for a period of three years, in accordance with the provisions of Decree-Law no. 57/2016 of 29 August, as amended by Law no. 57/2017 of 19 July.

8 - Remuneration - The monthly remuneration to be awarded is that provided for in article 5(1) of Regulatory Decree no. 11-A/2017, of 29 December, corresponding to level 33 of the single remuneration table, approved by Ministerial Order no. 1553-C/2008, of 31 December, and is 2,294.95 euros. Holiday, Christmas and meal allowances are added to the basic salary.

9 - Candidates must formalise their applications within 15 working days of the date of publication of this Notice in the Diário da República and on the Bolsa de Emprego Público. Applications may be sent by email to recrutamentos@ics.ulisboa.pt, by registered post with acknowledgement of receipt or delivered in person to the Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon, Avenida Prof. Aníbal de Bettencourt, 9, 1600 -189 Lisboa, Portugal, and must include:

- a) Application form (available at <https://www.ics.ulisboa.pt/info/concursos>), addressed to the Director of the Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon, including full name, number and date of identity card, citizen's card or civil identification number, tax identification number, date and place of birth, residence and contact address, including email address and telephone number;
- b) Declaration of informed consent (attached to the application);
- c) Copy of doctoral certificate or diploma,
- d) A detailed curriculum vitae, dated and signed;
- e) A brief cover letter, in Portuguese or English, summarising the most relevant skills for the development of the project, specifically those required to carry out the activities described in paragraph 5 of this notice;
- f) Optionally, a copy of a publication that is representative of the curriculum and/or relevant to the themes of the project.

10 - By decision of the Director of the Institute, candidates who do not comply with point 9 will not be admitted to the competition. Candidates who do not submit their application using the form, or who do not submit all the documents or elements referred to in points b) to f), or who submit them illegibly, incorrectly or invalidly, will be excluded outright. It also has the right to ask any candidate, in case of doubt and for the purposes of admission to the competition, to produce supporting documents for their declarations.

11 - The list of admitted and excluded candidates will be displayed at the ICS-ULisboa headquarters, publicised on the respective website and sent to all candidates by email with a receipt.

12 - Decision deadline - The jury's final decisions will be finalised within a maximum of 90 days from the deadline for submitting applications.

13 - Prior hearing - Under the terms of article 121 of the Code of Administrative Procedure, candidates have 10 working days after notification to give their opinion.

14 - Jury - The jury for the competition is made up as follows, in accordance with article 13 of the RJEC: Monica Truninger de Albuquerque de Medeiros Sousa, Principal Researcher at ICS-ULisboa (chair), Luís Filipe Sanches Goulão, Assistant Professor at ISA-ULisboa (member); João Morais Lavadinho Mourato, Assistant Researcher at ICS-ULisboa (member).

15 - Evaluation - The evaluation consists of an assessment of the candidates' Curricula Vitae and scientific career, including research, teaching, university extension and dissemination of knowledge.

15.1 - Research, with a weighting of 80% in the total assessment, comprises the following items:

- a) Letter of presentation/motivation referred to in paragraph e) of no. 9 of this Notice, assessing originality and suitability for the Research Project in which the candidate will be involved;
- b) Publications of books, book chapters or scientific articles in journals with a JCR or SJR impact factor, depending on their indexing in the Web of Science and/or SCOPUS\Scimago databases, with the intrinsic quality of the publication's scientific content being assessed in the context of the project's theme;
- c) Participation in national and international research projects;
- d) Communications at national and international scientific meetings;
- e) Scholarships and prizes;
- f) Participation in research teams, networks and partnerships.

15.2 - Postgraduate studies, with a weighting of 15 % in the total assessment, comprises the following items:

- a) Teaching, which includes teaching doctoral courses and other cycles, as well as coordinating curricular units, courses and study cycles, specialisation courses, etc;
- b) Guidance, including guidance and co-supervision of 3rd cycle theses and guidance of 2nd cycle theses;
- c) Participation in juries, including doctoral and master's juries;
- d) Other activities, including being a member of postgraduate study committees, scientific course committees, coordinating postdoctoral fellows and supervising research fellows.

15.3 - University Extension and dissemination of knowledge, with a weighting of 5 % in the total assessment, includes the following items:

- a) Opinions, studies, reports and other documents produced as part of collaboration programmes with companies and organisations in the private and public sectors;

b) Dissemination of knowledge to wider audiences, this item includes, among others, making databases available, presenting the results of research studies in the media, creating websites and webpages aimed at academic and non-academic audiences, etc.

16 - The assessment process may include interviews with a limited number of candidates to be selected by the jury taking into account the provisional ranking resulting from the assessment described in point 15. The interviews will include a discussion of the candidate's scientific career. If the jury chooses to hold interviews, they will have a maximum weight of 10 %, a percentage to be included in point 15.1.

17 - Approval on absolute merit - The jury will decide on approval or rejection on absolute merit, by a justified roll-call vote in which abstentions are not allowed, in accordance with the provisions of the General Regulations for Competitions at ULisboa, published by Order no. 2307/2015, of 5 March, in the Diário da República, 2nd series, no. 45.

18 - Ranking of the candidates - Each member of the jury gave each candidate a score for each assessment criterion, on a scale of 0 to 5 points, and the candidates were ranked according to their final score, which is the sum of the partial scores given for each assessment criterion, taking into account the weighting given to each parameter.

19 - Minutes are drawn up of the jury meetings, summarising what took place at the meetings, as well as the votes cast by each member and their respective reasons, and are made available to candidates on request.

20 - The final decision of the selection board will be approved by the Director of the Institute under the powers delegated by the Rector, who will also be responsible for concluding the respective contract.

21 - False statements made by candidates will be penalised in accordance with the law.

22 - The list of admitted and excluded candidates, as well as the final ranking list, will be displayed at the Institute's premises, at the above-mentioned address, and publicised on the Institute's website. Candidates will be notified by email with receipt of delivery of the notification, without prejudice to the provisions of articles 110 to 114 of the Code of Administrative Procedure.

23 - The Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon, as a public employer, actively promotes a policy of equal opportunities for men and women in access to employment and professional progression, scrupulously endeavouring to avoid any form of discrimination.

24 - Under the terms of Decree-Law no. 29/2001, of 3 February, disabled candidates have preference in equal ranking, which takes precedence over any other legal preference. Candidates must declare on the application form, on their honour, their degree of disability, the type of disability and the means of communication/expression to be used in the selection process, under the terms of the aforementioned decree.

The Director, Marina Costa Lobo.
